Rules

1. That the name of the Organisation be called the 'Chipping & District Agricultural & Horticultural Show', run by Chipping Show Ltd (registered company No. 06633474).
2. That the objects of the company be
  - a. To promote the breeding of good stock, and to encourage agricultural and horticultural improvements in all departments.
  - b. To assist members and kindred societies and associations in all matters relating to the interest of stock-breeding, agriculture and horticulture.
  - c. As ancillary to the foregoing objects but not otherwise the Company may organise and conduct agricultural and horticultural shows.
3. That the accounts of the Company shall be made up on the 30th day of September each year, and a Revenue Account and Balance Sheet shall be presented to the members at their Annual Meeting.
4. That any balance remaining at the end of the year shall be carried to Capital Account and such accumulation shall be used for the promotion of succeeding Shows, or for making any grants of money in the interest of agriculture generally, such grants first to be approved by the General Committee after due notice of the proposed grant has been given. Upon winding-up or dissolution of the Company, any funds or property in hand shall be disposed of by a majority of members present at a General Meeting to be summoned 14 days previous for that purpose. Any assets remaining after satisfaction of any liabilities properly payable thereat shall not be distributed among members but shall be given to such other charitable organisation or organisations having objects similar to those described in Rule 2 hereof.
5. All classes are open in all sections. Except those stated as Local in the Schedule.
6. That the Company shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Committee. The Officers and Committee to be elected annually, and the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Secretary to be ex-officio members of the Committee.
7. That the Company shall be supported by donations and annual subscriptions.
8. All exhibits must be on the Show Ground by 9.30am on the morning of the Show and remain until after completion of the Grand Parade.
9. All exhibits are at owners risk.
10. Any person or persons wishing to lodge a protest against any award given by a Judge must properly notify the Secretary in writing before 5pm on Saturday following the Show, and deposit with him the sum of £5 in Cattle, Horse & Sheep Classes. If the protestor does not prove his protest to the satisfaction of the Committee the money shall be forfeited to the Company's funds.
11. A General Parade of all Cattle and Horses which have received a prize at the Show will take place in the Show Ring at 3.20 pm on the Show Day. All animals to carry their prize rosettes, and any person refusing to allow his or her animals to be paraded shall be liable to forfeit prize money.
12. No Director or Steward other than the Card Stewards are allowed to be in the Ring while the animals are being judged and no person showing any animal must wear an official badge in the Ring.

13. All Exhibitors with entries totaling £8.00 or over will receive one Exhibitors Ticket (Two Tickets limit, or at Secretary's discretion).
  14. A Bellman will be appointed to assist in getting the exhibits to the Ring.
  15. The Committee do not accept any liability for accidents to competitors or spectators either on the field or adjoining paddocks.
  16. Special Warning: The Committee will not be held responsible for any accident, loss or damage on the field.
  17. That each member of the Agricultural Committee accepting responsibility for a Collection Book should subscribe full subs.
  18. All Exhibitors must be bona fide owners of livestock entered in the Show.
  19. No amendment shall be made to these Rules that would cause the Company to cease to be a Charity at law.

PLEASE NOTE

The Secretary will attend the Memorial Hall, Chipping from 6.30 pm to 8.00 pm on Thursday 10th August 2023 to receive Entries. Entries close: Friday 11th August 2023.

Chipping YFC

Are you in your teens/early twenties, living in the Chipping area & thinking there must be more to life than sitting in on Monday nights making 'small talk with the old folk'?

Well, make your excuses now & get yourselves to Chipping Village Hall weekly at 7:45pm where soon you'll find that not only are your Mondays occupied but a social life will abound at weekends too, along with Competitions during the week which are great confidence boosters like Public Speaking, Debating and Quiz Nights.

Run by the members, for the members, you set your own programme of visits/talks or sporting events with guidance from our Leaders and can join in the many and varied fun events arranged by Lancashire County for all young farmers in the area.

You don't have to be a farmer to join us – but whatever your interests, there is always an event/competition to suit or if not then have a go at something you've never done before – just for a laugh!

We have a new programme of events planned from September and further details are available from Jennifer Miller, tel 07736 684228

Class 1: Lemon drizzle cake

Class 2: Floral arrangement entitled 'Coronation'
